THE ART OF ELEGANCE

From the first architectural sketches, to the careful exploration of fabrics and finishes, through to the final delivery of our overarching vision, a consistent thread flows through everything:
the passionate search for elegance.

It is the thrill of the search that unites the extraordinary team of designers and artisans behind Aurelia Residences. Elegance is a mood, an attitude, a way of life. And while the idea of elegance - and elegant living - is universal, like art itself it is both ephemeral and timeless. With regard to elegance, however, one thing is certain - just like a work of art: you will know it when you see it.

WHAT IS AURELIA?

The name Aurelia evokes a place of beauty, desirability, and classic Italian elegance. At its heart, the name draws inspiration from “Aureus”, the beautiful Latin root word for gold; and “Aura” - a distinctive atmosphere or quality that surrounds a person, thing, or place. Aurelia suggests something that is intrinsically beautiful - a mood, an atmosphere, an aura, if you will, of elegance.

THE AURELIA SYMBOL

Symmetry and lightness. The Aurelia Symbol inspires a sense of ease and balance. Architecturally-speaking, the three-petal form brings in natural light and flowing ventilation, which in turn maximizes and widens viewing angles, providing each exclusive residence with unique and stunning panoramic views of both the cityscape and the surrounding greenery.

BUILDING FROM THE GROUND UP

With Architect Brian Lee
Design Partner, Skidmore, Owings & Merrill

The Architectural Vision

"Aurelia is designed to feel like a sophisticated collection of elegant homes. We all want a secure and comforting sense of privacy, but also want those features and characteristics that create a friendly and trusted sense of community. This project should feel uniquely Filipino in look, experience, and spirit."

Delivering on a Vision

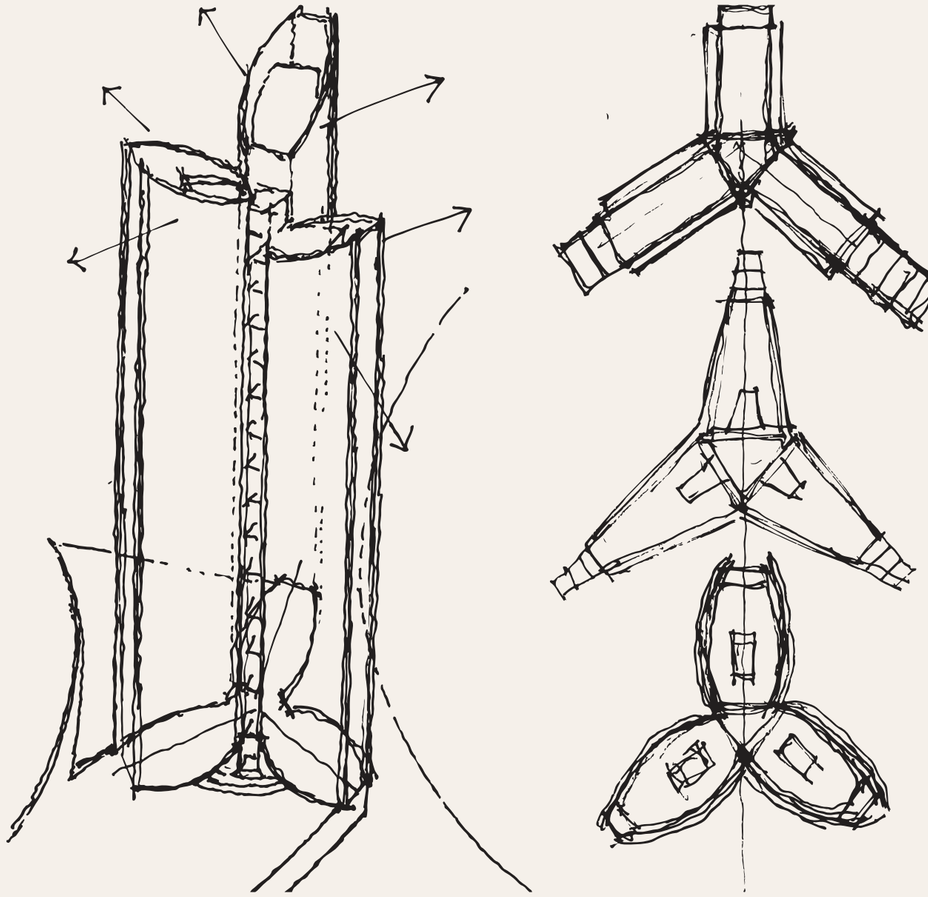

"How do we articulate our vision? An intimate entry and landscaped arrival court. A beautiful and tasteful building lobby and amenities floor. Individual private lobbies for each unit. Well laid out rooms and sequences within the unit. Great natural light and views with grand window openings. Very useable balconies for outdoor living. Open family kitchens supported by hard working production kitchens. Dignified staff living quarters."

Envisioning Spaces

"We create environments that recognize their context and place and try to imagine how people use spaces and adapt it to make it their own. Good design is innovative, bold as well as simple, understandable and honest, timeless, sustainable, and thoughtful and well-crafted to the smallest detail."

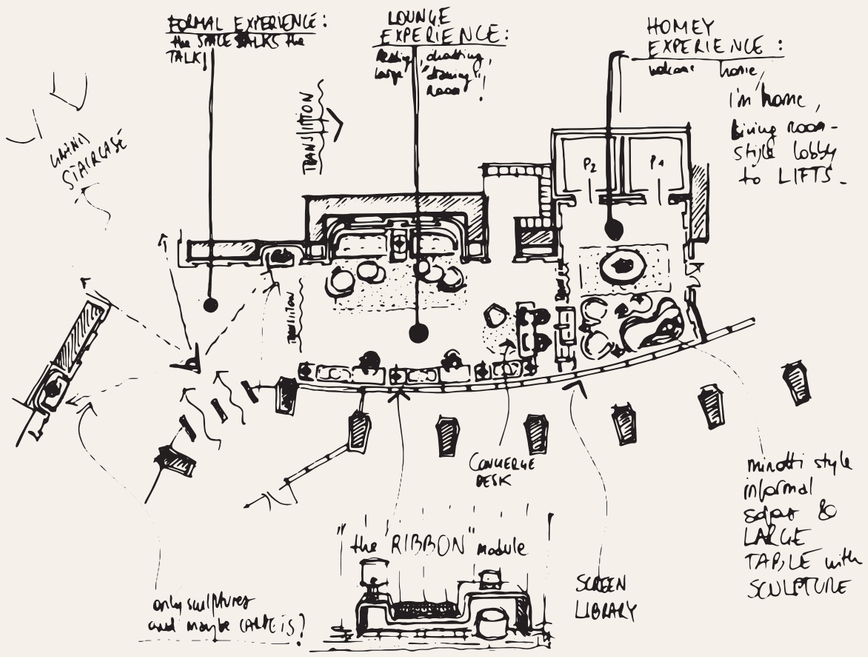

Interpreting The Art of Elegance

"I think it sets an expectation and commitment that every aspect of our design is attentive to making something extraordinary. It manifests itself in the physical environment but influences how we live our lives. It is a culture and way of living."

"Elegance is memorable and makes you think. It has underlying clarity and functionality. It has physical presence with graceful proportions and scale, notable materiality, thoughtful detail, and considers color and light. It has integrity of conception and resolution."

- Brian Lee

CRAFTING THE AURELIA LIFESTYLE

With Francesca Muzio
Founder and CEO, FM Architettura D'Interni

Spatial Design Vision

"As an Italian designer with a studio based in a region of Italy filled with traditional craftsmen, we have always been strong proponents of the use of artisan techniques and materials in any style of design. With Aurelia Residences, we propose a new standard of Luxury: a vision that is as much about experience as it is about materiality and design; of Italian sensibilities infused with the amazing heritage of the Philippines."

Design Inspirations

"Three core elements formed the basis of our design vision: the traditional Filipino villa with its large patios and ambient spaces; a sense of natural beauty and fluidity of movement; and traditional Filipino fabrics with their vibrancy, intricate detailing, and patterns. The key was to create an understated but nevertheless sophisticated design that draws inspiration from these things - and ultimately to deliver an overarching atmosphere of timeless elegance."

The experience of walking into the lobby

To feel a sense of "meraviglia" - a feeling of wonder and amazement - on entering their homes. As for the grand lobby space - we fell in love with the movement of the Filipino Terno and custom-designed a stunning chandelier inspired by this traditional garment, reconstructing the beautiful effect of the twisted fabric.

Interpreting The Art of Elegance

"Authenticity" is the ultimate symbol of effortless elegance and personal style.

"Behind the sense of elegance there is always a deep thought, a code transposed into a person or ambient moment.
"Through that authenticity" is the ultimate symbol of effortless elegance and personal style."

- Francesca Muzio

ARCHITECURALLY SPEAKING

With Architect Brian Lee
Design Partner, Skidmore, Owings & Merrill

"The innovative configuration of the tower is very much informed by Aurelia Residence's prime location and stunning panoramic views.

Naturally, the project is a response to Manila's tropical climate and daylight, as well as our vision to recreate the qualities of a luxury family home in a high-rise building. By deconstructing the scale of the tower plan it ensures all units enjoy expansive views of the city. The floor to ceiling picture windows frame magnificent views and dramatizes high-rise living. Custom vents flanking the windows are a safer and more practical way of getting natural ventilation. The protected, deep balconies create even more usable space and open up the homes for indoor and outdoor living."

YOUR WINDOW TO THE WORLD

With its prime location in Bonifacio Global City, Aurelia Residences offers commanding views across the city and beyond.

One of the key architectural challenges was to maximize the viewing angles throughout the tower, across all floors and in all orientations. The signature Aurelia three-petal form provides an elegant architectural solution to this challenge by opening up the façade to dramatic views in all directions.

To the north, stunning views of metropolitan BGC. To the south-west, the beautiful views of the Manila Golf Club, Forbes Park and the Makati skyline with Manila Bay on the horizon. To the South-East, the serene view of Laguna Bay in the distance.

TO THE EAST

Endless views in every direction, capturing the headlands over Laguna Bay. Watch as the landscape below transforms quietly into the night.

THE HEART OF AURELIA

The interior design language of Aurelia Residences is as much about the interrelations of space as it is about fine details and decorative elements.

Drawing on inspiration from sources as diverse as Hispanic Villas, Filipino tiling patterns, and Italian cultural artifacts, the designers have deftly woven together spaces of both impressive grandeur and cozy intimacy, culminating in an understated Italian luxury that is brilliantly adapted to the context of the city and its people.

From the first step under the canopy, you are immediately immersed into the journey and experience that is Aurelia.
